

Worthington elected to seat on board

Brian Worthington of The Worthington Law Centre in Salinas has been elected to the California Attorneys for Criminal Justice Board of Governors for a term of three years that began Jan. 1. CACJ is the country's largest statewide organization of criminal defense lawyers and allied professionals.